Start Time: 11:36 a.m.

End Time: 11:45 a.m.

SAC EXEC STATEMENTS

Sammy: Pushing yearbook photo to next week because of the weather and people aren't here

Jack: "Valentines day" day is coming up next week

Ethan: Constitution committee please stay after the meeting

Sammy (on behalf of Joey, who got snowed in): Budget meeting next monday after school

Miles: For valentines day what will we be doing?

Jack: We're gonna be doing something in the front foyer

Mies: Can we have another pajama day?

Jack: Maybe

DRESS CODE

Bandana Ban

Henry: I don't understand it.

- People should not identify with the clothing that they wear.

Malcolm: Incredibly unfair

- Just because someone wears a bandana in a gang doesn't mean everyone who wears a bandana is in a gang

Shap: What about logo policy? Forest hill was strict about it

Sammy: No general profanity

Ethan Kibel: Nothing on dress code about logo ban

Shap: Why can't we wear hoods?

- If you can cover your head for a religious reason, like a hijab, then you should be able to cover your head for other reasons as well

Nava: Covering your head is not safe and disrespectful

- Hijabs are religious and surpasses the boundary of respect.

Jaleelah: New dress code is fine, but there has to be a way to enforce it consistently from Teachers.

Ethan: Not sure who implements the dress code

- Can look into it

Miles: On behalf of yearbook, if you are an association senator and your association hasn't contacted us for yearbook pictures, do that
